

SALMON.—The Shasta Republican says that this being the season during which the Indians take the salmon for winter consumption, they are now caught in large quantities, and are fat and healthy. The Rancherias are numerous along the banks of the Sacramento, and all are busy curing their fish.

Butte

Record

CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 22. 1856.

THE DYING AND THE DEAD.—How little do we think of the dying! and how little do we think of the dead! Our common brothers and sisters are daily around us. Many of them are orphan and friendless, strangers in a strange land, no father to lift them up, no mother to comfort them.

The next Legislature.
The following are the names and politics of the gentlemen who will compose the next Legislature, as far as heard from:
SENATE.
DEMOCRATS—18.
Josiah Johnson, Sacramento;
Joseph Walkup, Placer;
S. W. Johnson, El Dorado.

TWO FREMONT'S IN THE FIELD.—General topics of interest, says the National Democrat, here have been for the last few weeks of a political character. The excitement increases daily as the time approaches for the great contest in November; but the chances for Fremont are growing "smaller and smaller and beautifully less." He will