

VARIETIES.

INDIANS ABOUT MARYSVILLE.—General Sutter has furnished the Marysville Herald the following returns of the Indians in that vicinity, according to tribes. The aborigines are rapidly becoming extinct. According to this authority, there are of the Hock tribe, at the rancharia near Hock farm, ten men, seven women, and three children; of the Yukulmey, seven men, four women, and one child; of the Olash, ten men, nine women, and one child. The number of the Yubas will not vary materially from one hundred men, women and children.
