

A lady residing on the Round Valley Indian Reservation has published an appeal to the ladies in behalf of those Indians, stating that there are between thirteen and fourteen hundred Indians there who are in a destitute condition. When Napoleon discovered his soldiers suffering, he used to bring a Commissary next morning. Wonder if there is any hope of Uncle Sam's hanging an Indian Agent or two—or perhaps we ought to say an Agent, as we are informed that the new Agents have had no money to do anything with, until within a week or two.
