"GATHERING INDIANS."—A short item under the above head in the Times of November 16th, unfortunately displeased one of our readers and patrons, Mr. Wm. Roberts, and in retaliation he hurls at us a communication of twenty-four pages of closely written manuscript, with a request that the same be published. This we must decline, but for no other reason than its length.

Scanned by KJD - 2009 1 of 2

1 3.

rdiene.

athering in

HUMBOLDT COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, -1861 EUREKA,

:.

WKJD

| 200 | | The Young Wiffe's Death. |
|-----------------|--|--|
| 200 | the state of the s | The second second |
| ing, at Rere- | C. L. WATTACE | You smile in the dark, I know! |
| ornis, ng | TALER IN WINES, LIQUORS, &c, Park | Bursly I about know best |
| i i | . I side the Place, Areata. | Las year hand on my cheek. |
| ind attention | lan's Patent Combination Cushion Billiard Is. | Feel, though you see not, the red ; |
| | blon. | way, in ampider weak, I shall have left my bed ! |
| . 20 Oct. 26 00 | PHENIX EXCHANGE. | To was bedfor as Januarian |
| the year 7 Up | [6] | Soriet of the world's rate state, |
| et time tall | ndorr's poorus, a robus. | Uncared for and unknown, |
| ر ا | renoesfully beform his friends and the public | That sapped the springs of Ma., |
| 3.1 | generally, theth he has thoroughly renerated | Nay, soften that anxious brown |
| 1 00 | and fitted up the "Phenix Exchange," as a | Is not our God aborn? |
| | -thou is an applied with the best this and San | He will age summon me now. |
| nity per east | Francisco markets can afford. | The summer to coming fast; |
| r adraritants. | in the most commodure style. | Of the Illes by the door, |
| ime | DAT TERMS, TO SUIT THE TIMES. TER | When the delicate apple blossom. |
| torg. | - Brenkfaag, from dalf-past, fresto parent | I long for the fills of Brath- |
| T N G | Dinner, at twelve. | We will go to Rome for Leat, |
| · | Complete from sain that the courte, 45 | |
| Blanke. | BA | Oh, what is this andden pang? . In it exomine darker, Will? |
| ic tett | Enteker | Heartly goes my beart- |
| | Corner of Ward The Property of the BAY HOTEL, | It is gimost standing still ! Raise me—I cannot breathe: |
| ob. Printing, | same newly fermished, hard-finished, painted | Pray for me, love, she said : |
| Large redoc | and papered, would announce to the Public gen- | "Pather, into Thy handa!" And my young wife was dead |
| He wilt give | share of their patronage on Monday the 14th | Orrs a Week |
| | Roand 3 Todaine and The Co. | REMARKABLE ATROUTE IN EXCLAND. |
| | " without " 5 Do | The Rev. Augustus H. Danham of Chiv |
| TAKY PUB. | The day was 1 50 | ley Rectory, England, contributes to th |
| Court House. | . Rureka, Jan. 12, 1361 21.6m | Lundon Times the fullowing description |
| | Total and total the | of a remarkable agrolita which recently full near Lencester. |
| : SKA. : Omes, | _ | I was this day a witness of the fall of |
| 2d and P sta., | 1 | an nerolite of I believe, inprecedonts |
| n | The undersigned would respectfully inform his friends and the traveline public, that he is | size. As I was driving my wife an children in the winnings of my house |
| SKA. | prepared to accommodate his customers with as | rushing sound, Fradually increasing |
| 41. | | intenestly, made steelf heard, until at last |
| To The said | MEALS SERVED AT ALL HOURS. | to ring in my cars, a Caming mass plung |
| 11-16 | Board and Ladging, per wee | ed itself into the road at a distance of |
| of Martin ald | Pore day | wife and two children were naturall |
| Waty. 41-17 | Single Meals | much alarmed, so I directed some has |
| | - 11mm 1 mm | |

Son after of the pine outage, as the relation of the pine outage, as the relation to the pine outage, and the relation to the pine of the pineers with distinct of the pineers with the relation to the relation t Hickory at defance. But they mistook dren; and no won er, forlorn as he wes, their man. As soon as the old here leaved the bearter whish they were about, he order pair to rise, eren though as he here that of them and their consult and not of the same within three days, and not to orphan, cannot forget lits word. Many connected the beatter than 120 miles of the city pear before, be sides soon nearly the officially announce of the connected the confident and here than took judicious lowy wave—of him she had heard no notice of the trame time fonce judicious lowy wave—of him she had heard no lore that they might have here events. ing him off his guard; he assured his army and the inhabitants that the fruits of their glorious victory should not be anached from them by reason of any lack of vigilance on his part, and that, uptil he received official notification from purpose of throwhis Government that, peace had been deing that they might have been circulated by she enemy for the purpose of throw-Jackson arrived in 18716 In Inthe Part of the lines the most inflexible discipline. 4 6 4 8 8 4 7 5 8 8 8 285 ř pilgrimago, in d. Yet to this hour she had been upborne; she had mut only been able to privide for her little flock, but had never lest an opportunity ok, but had never lest an opportunity ministering to the wants of the miseridence bud deprived her of the companion the person of her husband. and etaff of her worldly able and destitute. 6

This proclamation produced a profig-Lougiller, who was a member of the L. Salabar 1113

The Righteens Never Foreston.

The indolent may well bent with pore last, died, and left you his money. You orty while the chility we gain someoner are not going to eleep are you? Well, I remains. The individual who has but call that rather uthandsone troutment, his own wants to supply may suffer with considering that I have uten the pains fortitude the winter of want; his affect to come here an beny you company. A times may wounded, the heart is no slight conclude the pinners may, however the party of the pinners may, however the party of the pinners may, however the pinners may have the pinners may however the pinners may have the pinners

Lowerd

Cout An Interview with Monaleur

See to 1

uni de la composition della co

Tecis T

of his con him

nie nin

die die

Kith po

trian exercise. Really, in thuse days, I never expected to hare, the pleasure of making your acquaintance. I causider you just the kind of fellow likely to become an ornament of the Apine Club. tle leisure for gluttony ar wive bibbing; your means were limited; and during the holidays you took a sufficiency of pedas-But your estimable unule, old Jones, the well, indeed! many a time have I chatted to him when he was rearing like an agstockbroker-bless you, I knew bim very gravated bullock-your. old uncle Jones. holidaya you to trian exercise.

inform ato cas the pro

tunity Acou ing fror the tris sel for nodn