

~~Another "Good Indian." Curly-~~
~~headed Tom, the most notorious red scound-~~
~~rel of all the Digger tribe, met with an~~
~~"accident" at Arcata, on last Monday~~
~~night. It appears that Tom, for some act~~
~~of villainy unknown to us, had been sent~~
~~by the military authorities at Fort Gas-~~
~~ton, (on the Hoopa Reservation) to Fort~~
~~Humboldt, two miles below Eureka.~~
~~Some citizen swore out a complaint~~
~~against Tom, for murder committed in the~~
~~county, and John Bull, Jr., was deputed~~
~~by the Justice of the Peace at Arcata, to~~
~~serve the writ, and arrest the said Tom~~
~~and produce him for examination on said~~
~~charge. Mr. Bull did arrest said Tom,~~
~~and he was delivered up to him by the~~
~~military authorities of Fort Humboldt.~~
~~On his way, as prisoner of the law, to~~
~~Arcata, some red or other colored friend~~
~~of Tom's shot at him twice, wounding~~
~~him once. However, Mr. Bull succeeded~~
~~in delivering him safe and alive in Arcata.~~
~~Tom, having too much confidence in the~~
~~justice of the law, attempted to escape~~
~~from his place of confinement, and whilst~~
~~in the net was shot and killed by the~~
~~guard placed over him. Tom has boasted~~
~~of killing seven white men, and no doubt~~
~~told the truth. He is now what the peo-~~
~~ple call a "good Digger." Would all~~
~~Digger Indians were as Tom is—in the~~
~~spirit land.—Humboldt Journal, Dec. 7th.~~

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.

VOL. 19. EUREKA, HUMBOLDT COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1865. NO. 17.