

PITT RIVER INDIAN WAR.—By the letter of our Red Bluff correspondent, printed on the first page, it will be seen that Gen. Kibbe is about to disband the company lately engaged in Pitt River Valley. The snow is so deep at present on the trail from that place to Mendocino that the prisoners will be taken to Tejon Reservation.

WEAVERVILLE, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1859.

HOLIDAYS!
 THE PLACE TO BUY
TOYS,

A. MITCHELL,
 — WHOLESALE AND RETAIL — LIQUOR DEALER, FORMS THE
 public that he has

The Trinity Journal.
 WEAVERVILLE, CAL.,
 Saturday Morning, December 10, 1859.

Amazing Incident of Railroad Train
 An old railroad conductor relates the following touching incident of how his own life and lives of his passengers were saved—due for little acts of kindness bestowed on the land fatherless: