

MORE INDIAN PRISONERS.—We are informed that Lieut. Geer, of Company A, Mountaineers, commanding detachment stationed at Upper Mattole, has just bro't in to Fort Humboldt another installment of Indian prisoners captured by him in the district of country over which he has been scouting. There are nine of them in all consisting principally of squaws.

THE DASHAWAY.—Nothing heard from the Dashaway.

"More Indian Prisoners." Weekly
Humboldt Times, December 12, 1863:
p. 2, col. 2.

