

DEAD INDIAN.—An Indian who had helped Pearce Asbell drive in some hogs from Humboldt county and started back, was found murdered about six miles from Hay Fork on the 29th ult. The murder is supposed to have been done by Hoopa Indians, who instead of being on the Reservation are scouting in that vicinity.

Covered was organized on the 4th without

Weekly Trinity Journal

paper, Independent in Politics, and Devoted to the Advancement of Home

WEAVERVILLE, CALIFORNIA, DECEMBER 16, 1865.

COMPANY!	JAS. B. McCAIN, San Francisco.	P. McCURE, Weaverville.	Weekly Trinity Journal.	WINTER. Ho comes! The taddy Winter c I hear his footsteps through th I hear his vauguard from the
----------	-----------------------------------	----------------------------	-------------------------	---