

~~MORE INDIAN DEPRIDATIONS.~~—On Friday, 13th inst., the Indians attacked a small party of men on Yager Creek, who were driving mules to Arcata, and killed four mules and a horse. The riders narrowly escaped the shots and were obliged to leave their animals, by which the Indians came in possession of two Colt's revolvers and a supply of ammunition. About the same time a packer was shot at near B. Croghan's ranch and barely missed, and afterward several animals belonging to the train were killed.
