

T. J. Henley, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, comes out in a communication in the San Francisco papers, in which he completely and satisfactorily puts at rest certain allegations of fraud made by the Washington Correspondent of the Alla.

Red Bluff Beacon

Vol. 2, RED BLUFF, WEDNESDAY, DEC. 22, 1858. No