A Treaty of peace and friendship made and entered into at Camp Belt on Kings river in the State of California on the thirteenth day of May eighteen hundred and fifty one between George W. Barbour one of the Commissioners appointed by the President of the United States to make treaties with the various Indian tribes in the State of California; and having full authority to do so of the first part, and the Chiefs, Captains, and head men of the following tribes of Indians, to wit, the Ta-ches, Wah-wia, Go-kol, Ta-lum-ne, Wie-chum-ne, Hol-cu-ma, To-i-nache, Tu-hue-mach, Tu-tim-psach, Choi-nuck, Wi-mil-chi, and No-ton-toes of the Second part.

Article 1st

The said tribes of Indians jointly and severally acknowledge themselves to be under the exclusive jurisdiction, control and management of the Government of the United States, and undertake and promise on their part to live on terms of peace and friendship with the Government of the United States, and the citizens thereof, with each other, and with all Indian tribes.

Article 2nd

It is agreed between the contracting parties that for any wrong or injury done by individuals of either party to the person or property of those of the other, no personal

Chowchillas river, to be run parallell to the aforesaid line crossing the San Joaquin and Fresno rivers and intersecting the Chowchilla at the distance of six miles from the said southwestern line, thence up the Chowchilla to said line and with it to the beginning on the Cahuia river; shall be set apart and forever held for the sole use and occupancy of said tribes of Indians, in consideration of which, and the further consideration of permitting said tribes to hunt wild game and gather wild nuts, fruit &c in the hills and mountains between the Cahuia and Chowchilla rivers, the said tribes hereby forever quit claim to the Government of the United States to any and all lands to which they or either of them may ever have had any claim or title.

Article 4th.

In further consideration of the premises and for the purpose of aiding in the subsistance of said tribes of Indians during the years eighteen hundred and fifty one and two; it is agreed by the party of the first part to furnish said tribes jointly (to be distributed in proper proportions among them) with six hundred head of beef cattle to average five hundred pounds each, and five hundred sacks of flour of one hundred pounds each, for each year.

Article 5th.

It is further agreed that as soon after the ratification of this treaty by the President
