“LO, THE POOR INDIAN.”—One of these unfortunates got stabbed in the groin out at Norris', the other day. He now lies very low at a market house in town, if he is not dead. In the latter case, it is quite likely the other Indian who stabbed will soon be so likewise, on the grounds of retributive justice, as understood on our “frontiers.”

MR EDITOR :—The editorial of yesterday's Transcript, headed “Land Titles in Sacramento,” is a matter of so much surprise to my mind, that I cannot allow it to pass without condemning the manner in which it is written, and the injurious influence it is capable of exerting over the rights and interests of the people, who have thus far cordially extended to that paper their support and favor.

In this article the editor pretends to be ignorant of the essential merits or character of that question,
