

Deputy Sheriff Ryner, who was despatched express, a few days since, to the Mission of San Isabel, to collect information touching the movements of the Indians, returned to town yesterday, and reports Antonio as having established his head quarters at "Agua Caliente," at the head of a strong force. Major Fitzgerald's company of volunteers will leave today for the seat of war, and we doubt not that, should he succeed in bringing on an engagement, that he will be able to give a good account of himself.

"Deputy Sheriff Ryner...reports Antonio as having established his headquarters at Agua Caliente..." San Diego Herald, November 27, 1851: p. 2, col. 3.
