

powered by

A Freely Accessible Repository of Digitized California Newspapers from 1846 to the Present

Daily Alta California, Volume 4, Number 40, 10 February 1853 — SACRAMENTO NEWS. [ARTICLE]

SACRAMENTO NEWS.
[PER ADAMS & CO.'S EXPRESS.]

[PER ADAMS & CO.'S EXPRESS.]

The weather continues fine and pleasant at Sacramento, and business again is brisk on the levee and streets.

DRY CREEK INDIANS.—The Indians on Dry Creek have succeed in escaping from their fortified position, and are supposed to have taken shelter in the tules. The war of extermination has thus been for the present, suspended.

The body of a German named Schurdendick, drowned near Sutter's fort, was found on Tuesday last.

A shooting affair came off at Hoboken on Tuesday between Thos. Price, and a person named O'Brien. The ball struck Mr. O'Brien's head, but glanced off, doing him slight injury.

MARYSVILLE.—The Marysville papers of yesterday came through by Adams & Co., but no news with them.

FOUND DROWNED—The coroner held inquests on the bodies of two men found on the 7th inst. One of them had a large number of marks made by India ink on each arm, name unknown. The other was recognized as a Mr. Carleton, from Ohio. The coroner judges the deceased were both about 25 years of age.—Express.

Miss Hayes had a fine house at her opening concert on Tuesday, and went through the performances with the success which has attended her efforts in this city. The heat was very oppressive.