Up-River News.

Gregory's messenger has handed us the Herald of yesterday, from which we extract as follows:

THE YUBA INDIANS.—It is apparent to every observer who notes the proceedings of the diggers who daily visit our city, that such a change has come over the habits of these people since the settlement of the whites in this part of the country, as to render them totally unfit for those pursuits which a few years since were characteristic of the race. Rum has destroyed their physical energies, and debased whatever of good they might once have claimed.

THE UPPER SACRAMENTO.—Gregory's Express messenger informs us that the river above Colusa was rising when the steamer Express left on Monday morning. The water in front of the city has been but slightly affected by the rise above, having risen only a few inches since yesterday morning.
