

Snow fell in Buffalo on the 22d March, to the level depth of eleven inches.

Political.

LOUISIANA.—The Whigs of Louisiana are holding numerous County Conventions, and in all of them, so far as we have seen, they recommend Fillmore for President, and in several of them John J. Crittenden for Vice President.

MASSACHUSETTS. — The Whig members of the Legislature in their annual meeting discussed the Presidency. There was but one expression of opinion, and that was the submission of all private and personal preferences to the voice of the National Convention. After passing by one unanimous voice a resolution to sustain the nomination of the Whig National Convention for President and Vice President, and giving three hearty cheers for the success of that nomination, the convention adjourned.

TEXAS.—The Brazos Delta has placed at the head of its columns the names of Daniel S. Dickinson, of New York, for President, and Thos. J. Rusk for Vice-President.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT.—Loomis L. White, of New York, to be Consul of the United States at San Juan del Sur, in the Republic of Nicaragua.

James W. Irwin, of Kentucky, to be Consul of the United States for the city of Ravenna, in Italy.

Edward F. Beale, to be Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the State of California.

James Points, of Virginia, to be Marshal of the United States for the Western District of Virginia.

Musical.

Anna Thillon has it all her own way at present. Her next essay is the "Black Domino," (Le domino noir,) a charming comic opera of the French school, and exactly adapted to her style and powers.

Mr. A. Braham is still at New York, resting on his oars at present.

Catharine Hayes was last heard of as at St. Louis.

Max Maretzek, at last Cincinnati dates, was advertising a grand concert there, with Steffanone and Salvi.

William Vincent Wallace, with his talented troupe had reached Cincinnati.
