

task. He complained early in the morning of stiffness in his limbs, but towards noon he recovered his elasticity, and completed his 36th mile last evening, having suffered but little fatigue so far. He is evidently a fellow of pluck, and declares that he will rather die on the track than abandon the undertaking.

---

THE AMERICAN THEATER.—This house was not re-opened on Monday evening, owing to the non-arrival of the company engaged for the ensuing season; but as they are now all here, the theater will be opened positively this evening, with the same bill that was announced for that evening. Mr. and Mrs. Baker, universal favorites with the Sacramento theater-going public, are again shortly to appear upon the boards of the American, and these artists, together with the talented and popular corps of actors already engaged, must render the theater a more popular place of resort than ever.

---

SUPPOSED MURDER OF MR. WOODWARD AND PARTY.—Intelligence reached the city yesterday afternoon, by a gentleman arrived from the mountains, strongly confirmatory of the murder of Mr. Woodward, mail carrier from this city to Salt Lake, and his party, by the Indians on Goose Creek. Nothing had been heard of the party, but the Indians in the vicinity had been observed to have in their possession a number of $50 gold pieces, and there is scarcely a doubt but they were taken from the murdered men.

---

AUCTION SALES.—J. B. Starr, at the old stand on the Levee, will sell this morning a large assortment of merchandize, consisting in part of liquors, provisions, clothing, &c. Also,