TO EQUESTRIANS.—Frank Stevens, well known to our citizens as a capital connoisseur in horse flesh, has taken the commodious stables recently occupied by D. McDowell, on Third street, near I. To those of our readers who are desirous of a “tip-top turn out,” the carriages and steeds of Frank will give ample satisfaction, while his saddle nags are not surpassed by any horse flesh this side of the Rocky Mountains.

We can cordially recommend the stock of this stable to those whose business avocations or schemes of pleasure require such property as is now in the possession of the accommodating Frank.

LATER FROM THE SCENE OF INDIAN DISTURBANCES AT THE NORTH!—The Mountain Herald of the 10th informs us that on the 24th ult. Messrs. Johnson & Wilson, packers, were attacked by the Indians at a camp on the Red Wood Mountain, Trinity trail, some 20 miles from Humboldt Bay. Mr. J. was killed, and Mr. Wilson severely wounded by arrow shots.

The ladies of Yreka have presented a beautiful banner to the Yreka and Humbug volunteers. Gen. Joe Lane presented it on behalf of the ladies, accompanied with appropriate remarks.

On Wednesday last the Indians destroyed a house, haystack and other property, four miles from Jacksonville, near Griffith's Ranch, belonging to a Mr. Moserett, a Frenchman.

The whites went out, on the day appointed, to meet the Indians and conclude the treaty. But three wild Indians made their appearance.

But three wild Indians made their appearance, who said that the following day was the one appointed—that the whites had made a mistake of one day.

So says report—nothing official is yet received from head quarters.

Two companies (Capts. Owens and Terry's) were sent, on Wednesday evening, to Applegate creek.

It is rumored that Capt. Bob Williams and his Rangers had a fight with the Applegate Indians a few days since, and killed about twenty, with a loss of but one man wounded.

SISKIYOU.—The following items are from the Mountain Herald of the 10th inst.:

ARRIVAL OF EMIGRANTS IN ROGUE RIVER VALLEY.—Mr. J. Rogers, of Cram, Rogers & Co.'s Express, informs us that 80 wagons arrived in Rogue River Valley, on Saturday, the 27th ult., principally families from Illinois and Missouri, and on Saturday last, six wagons and about 600 head of beef cattle.

Trains are now arriving from Crescent City and Soottsburg, the trail being sufficiently guarded for the protection of packers. Goods are also coming in briskly from below. Merchants are laying in winter stocks, and business has resumed quite a lively aspect.

RAIN.—We had quite a heavy rain on Friday of last week. It snowed on the mountains, and the weather has been much cooler since.

We are credibly informed that one hundred and fifty U. S. troops (infantry) will arrive in Scott Valley to-morrow, en route for Rogue river. We are in hopes these troops will hasten to the scene of action, as we fear peace will not be concluded.

PREMONITORY OF WINTER.—The Placer Herald of the 17th says that Auburn was visited on Thursday with a heavy rain, and that stoves and thick clothing were in demand.

ATMOSPHERIC CHANGES.—All of our interior exchanges are complaining of new chilly or exchanges are complaining of raw, chilly weather and early rains.

RISE OF MOUNTAIN STREAMS.—The Shasta Courier says that Trinity river has risen two feet within the past week.

FIRE AT MOKELUMNE HILL.—The Chronicle says that the saw mill of Mr. Chavonel was destroyed by fire on Sunday, the 11th inst.

So scarce is money in New York at the present time, that the daily Times states that application has been made by merchants to the Secretary of the Treasury for relief and refused.

The number of visitors at the Crystal Palace yesterday, was 6609, being the largest number that has yet visited the Palace in one day.

Dry goods to the amount of $2,642,495 were entered at the New York Custom House during the last week.
