ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—A man named Albert Sweet, from Taunton, Mass., made an attempt to commit suicide in a lodging house No. 83 Commercial street, yesterday morning about ten o'clock. He cut his throat and inflicted several wounds upon his breast and abdomen. The weapon used was a common jack-knife, with a blade about two inches long. The wound was dressed by Dr. Hyam, and he was afterwards taken to the State Marine Hospital. He had been laboring for some days under an attack of delirium tremens.

THE INDIANS OF KLAMATH.—The Yreka Herald says that since the fight in January last, the Indians on the Klamath river have twice or thrice sent messengers to Scott Valley, for the purpose of affecting an amicable settlement of the whole matter, and Lieutenant Bonnycastle, A. M. Rosborough, Indian Agent, and E. Steele, of Scott Valley, went out and had a talk with them. A long talk was had, and the Indians expressed a strong desire for peace, and wished to be allowed to go to Fort Jones and remain there until Government fixes some permanent location for them. They will be removed to Fort Jones shortly.

COMPLIMENTARY BALL.—The Complimentary Ball to be given by the citizens of Sacramento to the State Officers and Members of the Legislature, will take place at the Orleans this evening. In order to accommodate those who wish to attend from this city the steamer Wilson G. Hunt will leave at 12 o'clock, noon.

NO DUEL.—The Empire County Argus contains a letter from David E. Hacker, at Volcano Bar, contradicting the report of a duel which was said to have been fought between him and J. S. Landon. No duel was fought, neither was there any dispute between the parties.
