

SHOT.—The Shasta Courier says that a packer named Miron Scribner was shot by an Indian near the South Fork of Trinity River, and severely, though it is hoped not mortally, wounded.

WE return our thanks to Adams & Co. and Wells, Fargo & Co. for prompt delivery of full files of late Oregon papers, also for San Francisco journals of Saturday.

MINING ENTERPRISE.—A mass meeting of the miners of Shasta has been convened for the purpose of organising a company to bring water into the Olney and surrounding diggings.

MOUNTAIN FRUIT.—The good citizens of Shasta, the Courier states, are luxuriating in fresh strawberries, grown in a garden at that place.

RETIRED.—George Vincent and Mr. A. A. Van Guelder have ceased to be connected with the Empire County Argus. Mr. C. Woods has purchased an interest in that journal.

NEW FLOURING MILL.—Mr. Jerome C. Davis is erecting a steam flouring mill at his ranch, on Putah creek. It will be finished on the 15th June.

PETRIFICATION.—A specimen of petrified wood, exhumed from 120 feet under the ground, at Nevada, has been exhibited to the editor of the Marysville Express.

FIRE AT RED BLUFFS.—The Globe Hotel, together with an adjoining frame dwelling, were burned at Red Bluffs on the 19th inst. So says the Shasta Courier.

KATE HAYES IN SAN FRANCISCO.—The second concert of Miss Kate Hayes was very
