THE NORTHERN COAST.—From the Alla we learn that there has been much excitement learn that there has been much excitement lately on the subject of rich diggings, said to have been discovered on Galice creek, which empties into Rogue river, fifty miles from Port Orford.

The reports from the Lower Klamath are also very favorable. All agree that the gold is very extensively diffused, and that the valley must within a few years be entirely dug up.

The Indians on the Lower Klamath are quiet and will take no part in the difficulties {which follow the alleged murder of Topsy and Shasta Bill.

SIERRA ITEMS.—We condense the following from the Citizen:—Mining throughout the county is more prosperous than ever.

A scoundrel broke into the house of Mrs. Wilcox, and stole a dress and a few dollars.

A number of gardens may be seen along the North and South forks of the Yuba.

The different fluming companies are making extensive preparations for the summer.

THE Court of Sessions of Yuba county, says the Express, met in Marysville on Monday. A Grand Jury was ordered, and Court adjourned until Tuesday.

EXPLANATION.—The closing paragraph of our San Francisco correspondent's letter of Monday was inadvertently inserted in our edition of Tuesday. His views in the premises are not fully sustained by us.

ACCIDENT.—The Sierra Citizen informs us that a few days since Mr. A. W. Henry had his left foot badly crushed while moving a mill shaft on Wolf Creek. He is recovering.
