

SHOOTING AFFAIR.—The Herald says that on Wednesday last, Mr. Griffin was shot by Mr. H. Starr in the streets of Yreka. Wound not dangerous.

It is rumored that the Shasta Indians have all, with the exception of one who returned wounded and told the tale, been killed by other Indians on the Lakes. Fortunate, if true.

The California and Oregon Stage Company's coaches leave Yreka every morning now for Callahan's and Shasta, and every other day for Jacksonville.

The body of Eleazer Smith, who died Aug. 16th, on Long Gulch, was buried by St. John's Lodge, F. & A. Masons of this place, on Thursday last. Mr. S. was aged about 48, and formerly of Mineral Point, Wisconsin.

A party of thirteen men left our place on Monday last for the purpose of meeting their friends, and protecting the emigrant trail.

NEVADA ITEMS.—The following are compiled from the Journal:

THE TURF.—The race between the celebrated horse Wagoner, of Sacramento, and Henry Clay, of Nevada, came off on Friday last. The Wagoner won the race the two first heats. At each heat they run together beautifully for two-thirds the distance, but at the latter end Wagoner run ahead, winning by some thirty feet.

The road we noticed a few weeks since, passing over Buckeye Hill, and to the west of Sugar Loaf, is now fully completed and ready for travel. We have not seen it, but it is said to be an excellent road.

SNOW.—We learn from Dobson, of Langton & Bros. Express, that snow fell to considerable depth on the summit, in sight of the Downieville trail, on Monday last.

A gentleman from Eureka informs us the ground there was clothed with a white garment the same day.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—From the Herald we learn that the lots upon which stand the "What Cheer House," and the "Merchant's Exchange," sixty-eight feet nine inches on Sacramento street, with a depth of one hundred and thirty-seven and a half feet, were sold by Messrs. Paine & Dewey
