MOUNTAIN MILITARY.—The Sierra Citizen gives the proceedings of a meeting of the Sierra Guards, a newly organized military company in Downieville.

FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—On Monday, Charles Ball was elected Chief Engineer, A. W. Nightingill, First Assistant, and S. H. Jackson, Second Assistant Engineer of the Marysville Fire Department.

LITERARY PUBLICATIONS.—Kirk Brothers, with their usual promptness, courtesy and liberality, have supplied us with a big budget of magazines, pictorals, and choice miscellaneous reading matter.

CHEAP.—Building materials of almost every description were never lower in California than at present. On Monday, Oregon lumber was selling in San Francisco for eighteen dollars per thousand.

COURT OF SESSIONS.—The only business transacted in this Court yesterday was the allowance of an order directing the Commissioner to issue a two per cent. bond for $7,500, in favor of the Court House contractors.

AUCTION SALES.—J. B. Starr & Co. will offer several valuable city lots at auction, at 11 o'clock this day, in front of the Orleans.

EARTHENWARE.—Attention of dealers is directed to the auction sale of earthenware by Hutton & Co. of San Francisco, to-morrow.
