

the vicinity of Nevada, says that much has already been done towards this end. One of the beneficial results, it continues, will be a ditch three feet deep, and the same in width, running along the ridge, and leading into Grass Valley.

KING WEIMAR.—The Grass Valley Telegraph learns that, despite the efforts made to retain King Weimar in that place, he has consented to take up his abode on the Reservation. Several wagon loads of Indians have also already left.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—An inquest was holden in Sonoma on the 13th inst., over the body of I McNulty, found dead in his bed. Verdict of the jury intemperance and exposure. He was a native of Baltimore, and a shoe-maker by trade.

FLOURING MILL BURNED.—The Sonoma Bulletin says that the flour mill belonging to B. Phelps, near Capt. Smith's, in Bodega, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning, 11th inst. The mill contained, at the time, a large quantity of wheat, and the total loss is estimated at $25,000.

BUSINESS IN NEVADA.—The Democrat says that the Nevada merchants are preparing for the rainy season by laying in heavy stocks of goods, provisions, &c. It is expected that business will be very brisk during the coming winter. There are now more goods in Nevada than at any one time before, and there is little danger of provisions being as scarce as in the winter of 1852-'53.

BAND OF HORSE THIEVES.—The Monterey correspondent of the San Joaquin Republican says that, on the Tulare side of the San Miguel Pass, over one thousand persons are now living by plundering and catching wild horses. Most of them are outlaws.

NEW ROAD.—A new road has been opened by