

THE WEALTH OF PROVIDENCE.—The total valuation of the city of Providence is $48,928,700. The tax is fifty-six cents on each one hundred dollars, producing $274,579 68. One hundred and sixty persons, corporations and estates pay a tax on 50,000 and upward. The heirs of Thomas P. Ives are taxed $10,228 26 on property valued at $1,825,700. Alexander Duncan and family pay $9,111 20 on $1,627,000 worth of property; the heirs of Anna Jenkins pay $7,357 28 on $1,313,800; two others pay on property valued at over half a million; two on upward of $400,000; six on upward of $300,000; fifteen on upward of $200,000, and fifty on upward of $100,000. Providence contains some of the richest families in the United States.

TEJON MILITARY RESERVATION.—This United States Military Reserve is situated in the favorite pass of the thieving Indians of the interior, in the Cajon de las Uvas, at the very point where the Sierra Nevada and Coast Range merge, being the common thoroughfare for the vallies of the San Joaquin and Colorado, as well as the central portion of the mountain sections.

A NEWS STATION.—Panama is favorably situated for the early reception of both Atlantic and Pacific news. The Star of the 31st ult., contains the full particulars of the losses of the Yankee Blade and Arctic, which was received there simultaneously the previous day.

"BLACK JACK"—An escaped convict from the State Penitentiary, was arrested at San Jose a few days since, whose name is Jake Bowen, but who is commonly known as "Black Jack." He had been sentenced for 20 years. This is the second time he has effected his escape.

YUBA VEGETABLES.—The Herald says that a pumpkin weighing 85 pounds, two squashes weighing respectively 92 and 106 pounds, a cu-