

ANOTHER GOLD DISCOVERY.—Gold has been discovered, says the Statesman, within the past few days at John Leabo's ferry, on the Willamette river, some seven or eight miles above Salem. About one hundred men have prospected there, and some gold has been taken out, but not any considerable quantity, as no regular digging has yet taken place. The color is easily raised. It is found in particles and in quartz. There is plenty of black sand where it is found. We have been shown some specimens of the gold. We think it is undoubtedly genuine; and the only question now to be determined is, are the diggings rich enough to pay?

RESIGNATIONS.—Gen. Nesmith some time since resigned his office of U. S. Marshal, to take effect when his successor was appointed, which will be at an early day.

J. L. Parrish also resigned the post of Indian Agent two or three months since. We learn that Superintendent Palmer recommended the appointment of the Hon. Nathan Olney to fill the vacancy. —[Statesman.

Mr. Foster, member elect from Coose county, has resigned his seat in the House of Representatives. —[Oregonian.

TREASURY WARRANTS.—The Statesman says:—"Gov. Curry received by last mail $20,000 of Cayuse (Treasury) warrants for the citizens of the Territory."

THE WILLAMETTE RIVER.—The Oregonian says that the Willamette river, both above and below the falls, has not been so low as it is now, for the last five years.

TRADE IN PORTLAND.—We learn from the Oregonian that trade in that city is not quite so good as for a few weeks previous; probably on account of it being impossible for boats to run above the falls.

APPOINTMENT.—Geo. B. Goudy, of Lafayette, has been appointed Notary Public for Yamhill county.

The fine little steamer Belle has been refitted, painted and put in proper trim for the winter trade. She is now making her regular trips to the Cascades and Cowlitz river, as formerly. —[Oregonian.

EXECUTION OF INDIANS.—Three Indians, the murderers of a Mr. A. Folush, were hung at Crescent City on Monday, the 20th inst., in accordance with the sentence of a people's jury.
