

NORTHERN INDIANS.—The Shasta Courier says the Cow Creek and Pitt River Indians are now at war with the whites, owing to the fact that the former have not been supplied with food.

A large number of men, with eight or ten days supplies, started in the early part of the week on the war path. Loss of life on both sides will of course be the result.

COMMENDABLE.—The observance of the Sabbath is, we are glad to see, beginning to be recognized in the mining portions of the State. From the Miners' Advocate we learn that the merchants of Coloma have attached their names to a card by which they agree to close their respective stores on Sundays on and after the 10th instant.

INFLUX OF CHINAMEN.—There has been a great immigration of Celestials into Shasta County during the past fortnight. A correspondent of the Courier writing from "Horsetown," states that they are greatly abused by the miners in that vicinity, being hunted like wild beasts.

SUSPENSION BRIDGE.—The Union Democrat learns that a suspension bridge is to be thrown across the Tuolumne river at Sonora, for the purpose of conveying water from Hatch's Creek into the diggings about the town. The bridge will be 750 feet in length and 80 feet in height.

REV. DR. SCOTT.—The New Orleans congregation of this eminent divine refuse to allow him to leave their church, but have granted him a furlough of two years. He was to have left for San Francisco via Nicaragua November 29th.
