FROM HUMBOLDT.

Indian Affairs.

By the brig E. D. Wolf, which arrived on Monday, we have advices from Humboldt a week later.

The condition of the Indians in that section is represented as very unfortunate. Feuds between the mountain tribes and the Indians of the coast continue to exist, breeding constant disturbance.

Lumber is selling at $12a18 per thousand.

TURNPIKE ROAD.—The Herald says that in all probability three wagon roads will be simultaneously constructed, and perhaps as early as next spring, from the south or Shasta City, from the north or Scottsburg, and from the coast or Crescent City; all aiming to reach and pass through Jacksonville and Yreka, to claim the trade and intercourse of those regions. It will be seen that the capital stock is fixed at $85,000, divided into 850 shares of $100 each, on which an assessment of 10 per cent. will be called in after the stock is all subscribed for, and the company ready to commence work. $18,500 of the stock has been taken already.

THE MILITARY ROAD.—We learn from the Times that Lieut. Withers has recently returned from the survey of the military road in southern Oregon. Some of the settlers were dissatisfied, and petitioned Judge Deady for an injunction to stay work upon the road, but he properly declined for want of jurisdiction. The contracts have been let in sums of $1000 each, seventeen in number.
