

SHOOTING INDIANS.—Wm. Giles was arraigned before his Hon Judge Hayes, on Thursday, charged with shooting a "pair" of Indians. We understand that the testimony elicited went to justify the act on the ground of self defence, and the prisoner was discharged. Shooting Indians, in the South, has got to be so common an occurrence that we should not be surprised at the arrival of gentlemen from San Francisco to practice before us in "shootin" duels.
