

AN INDIAN SHOT.—Sheriff Conroy shot an Indian, night before last, wounding him, it was supposed at the time, fatally. It has been ascertained since, we hear, that he will recover. The Indian was endeavoring to make his escape when the sheriff fired upon him.

P. S. He's dead!

