UNION, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 1855.

SAN FRANCISCO AND STOCKTON.

TO VOLUNTEERS.—By a late act of Congress, all men who have served in any of the wars of the U. States (those of California included) are entitled to one hundred and sixty acres of land each, by furnishing the necessary evidence of said service to the Commissioner of Patents, Washington City. There are many of our citizens who are entitled to the benefit of the act, who should make application to the department for their warrants.
