CAMP WOOL, KLAMATH COUNTY,)

May 31st, 1855.)

MR. EDITOR: Knowing that you take an especial interest in the prospects and success of this section, I deem it my duty as a citizen to inform you of the situation of affairs here. The so called "Klamath War" is at an end. Capt. Young's company, who have done faithful service, was disbanded on the 20th inst., all of whom have gone to work mining, on the river. Everything is now quiet and persons coming into the mines may rest assured that they will not be molested by the Indians.

The reservation system would work well if we had a general agent here. Mr. Whipple is merely a special agent and if here, he has not that energy requisite in an agent. He left here some two weeks ago for San Francisco, and if I am allowed to judge, his services would have been more usefully employed in remaining here than in going below. There are now on the reservation some forty odd Indians. At this place there are one hundred and eighty more, anxious to go but no forty odd Indians. At this place there are one hundred and eighty more, anxious to go but no one to receive them. There are upwards of three thousand who are anxious to go upon the reservation and will do so if an agent takes any trouble upon himself. I presume that the Indians here would be removed by the commanding officer, but "it is said" the agent has made so many and so large promises to the Indians, that no U. States officer would take the responsibility of locating them and of fathering the blame that would arise from a neglect to perform the promises made by the agent. Why do you not stir up the superintendent, Col. Heply, so that he will attend to his duty? In connection with the subject of the agency, I will ask you if there be any truth in the report that our special agent only took the agency as a "stepping stone" to the Senate in the Legislature from this District, and if his appointment was made in pursuance of a promise to be elected to the State Senate? If these are true Mr. Whipple's chance of success is "rather lean." I would also inquire whether you believe that the day will ever arrive in California, tendant. Col. Hely, so that he will attend to his duty? In connection with the subject of the agency, I will ask you if there be any truth in the report that our special agent only took the agency as a "stepping stone" to the Senate in the Legislature from this District, and if his appointment was made in pursuance of a promise to be elected to the State Senate? If these reports are true Mr. Whipple's chance of success is "rather lean." I would also inquire whether you believe that the day will ever arrive in California, that the conferring and accepting of office will not be encumbered with contingencies—a consideration, either pecuniary or political. I could fill up your paper with similar inquiries, but knowing you cannot answer categorically, I will suppress them.

About ten days since one of Cha-po-nish's party was killed, and he was shot through the arm.—There are many white men in this section who are doing their utmost to dissuade the Indians from going on to the reservation, which could, however, be counteracted if we had an agent here.
