

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.

UNION, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1855.

COL.-HENLY.—To the San Francisco Herald we acknowledge ourselves and our county indebted, for the aid it has extended to us in our search after the sine cure officer, the Superintendent of Indians of California. Rumor has it that there is such an office, and that it is "embodied" in the person of one Thomas J. Henly. He has been written to, beseeched and entreated to take some steps to relieve our section of the troublesome Indians that infest it. Our rancheros have all been compelled to drive their stocks into the immediate vicinity of the towns. Not a pack train leaves this place unless doubly manned and armed, to resist the attacks of Indians. Such a state of affairs cannot last, our citizens will be compelled to take up arms and exterminate every Indian against whom suspicion is directed. To the "memorable seven," of Orleans Bar, we are more than half inclined to tender an apology for our castigation of their course, and in so doing divest ourselves of that sympathy and pity we once entertained for the Indian. We hope that Col. Henly can be induced to lay aside intrigue and "compromise" and attend to the interest of the whites and the wants of the Indians, instead of making the office a political machine and of affording to his political favorites opportunities for speculation.
