

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.

UNION, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1855.

Notice!

BY DIRECTION OF THOS. J. HENLY, Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the State of California, all that tract of country, from a point one mile above the May-Seef Rapids to the mouth of the Klameth River, and extending on each side four miles, is set apart for an INDIAN RESERVATION, under the Law of Congress regulating Indian Reservations in the State of California.

S. G. WHIPPLE,

Special Indian Agent, Klameth Reservation.

Capell, June 16, 1855. 3m