

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.

EUREKA, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1854.

We with pleasure give place to the following contradiction, of the statement we published in our last number. Our information was obtained from Mr. Robinson, and published in a modified form to that furnished to the commander of the garrison.

EEL RIVER, Sept. 27, 1854. —

Editor of the Humboldt Times:

We, the company that went in search of the murderers of Wigmore, a few days ago, take this opportunity of informing you, that you were misinformed, either malignantly, or through ignorance concerning the conduct of said company, and particularly as to the committal of violence upon the person of a squaw, by one of the party.

G. A. DUNGAN,	A. DENMAN,
G. W. LARIMORE,	THOMAS DUNGAN,
J. F. WHITTEN,	JAMES GRUSH,
W. MINOR,	W. H. GILMAN,
J. RIPLEY,	J. S. BALL,

VERY NEAR BEING HOAXED.—Last week some