

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.

UNION, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1855.

San Francisco Advertisements.

Headquarters for Indian Beads.

GOODS FOR THE INDIAN TRADE, OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS.

WE can offer to Indian Traders, and to purchasers generally, a BETTER AND LARGER STOCK OF THESE GOODS than can be found anywhere in California, and at LOWER PRICES.

We are constantly receiving these goods in large quantities direct from the factories and are thus enabled to offer them lower than any other house.

Also, constantly receiving FANCY HARDWARE of all varieties, such as:

- Worcester's and Rogers's Pocket Cutlery, of all sizes
- Warranted English and French Table Cutlery
- Plated Table Ware of all kinds, such as Spoons, Forks and Knives.
- Combs, of all descriptions; Buck Purses
- Gold Snuff Boxes, Game Bags and Powder Flasks
- Guns, Rifles and Pistols
- Soaps and Perfumeries, of Lulin's best.

The above, together with a full assortment of Shell and Heavy Hardware, we offer at the very lowest rates.

PITZGERALD & CO.,
Hardware Dealers, No. 112 Battery street,
Sign of the Big Padlock.

San Francisco, Sept. 22.