

SAN DIEGO HERALD.

1. SAN DIEGO, CAL., THURSDAY, JUNE 26, 1851.

ARMY.—The troops stationed at the junction of the Rivers Gila and Colorado have, we understand, been recalled, in consequence of the inadequate means provided by the appropriations, at the last session of Congress, for the transportation of supplies which, in this case, involved great expenditures. Already have these expenditures exceeded the ability of the Department to meet them, and the government and individuals are injuriously affected thereby. These troops, commanded by Maj. Heintzelman, are now at San Isabelle, a distance of about 50 miles from here—a slight guard of one officer and ten men having been left at the station upon the river, to afford protection to the Ferry Company there.

We also learn that the Indian commissioners, escorted by Capt. Key's command, have arrived, and are now encamped, in the vicinity of Los Angeles.
