

SAN DIEGO HERALD.

1. SAN DIEGO, CAL., THURSDAY, DEC. 5, 1851. FREE PUBLICATION NC

As the greater part of the male population of our city was absent on a crusade against the Indians, last week, and there was no steamer due by which we could send our paper above, we deemed it best to suspend publication, till intelligence was received from the party which left here on the 27th ult., under the command of Major Fitzgerald. This will explain the circumstances of our first page bearing date December 5th—it having been printed in anticipation of our regular issue.
