At a meeting of Fitzgerald’s Volunteers...

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be tendered to Major McKinstry, the Acting Quartermaster of this post, for his generous and prompt action in tendering to the “Fitzgerald Volunteers,” wagons and mules, which were actually necessary for the expedition.

And be it further Resolved, That we tender to Major McKinstry, our heartfelt thanks, for his patriotism in offering his services, as a Volunteer, even to act in any capacity; although the officer elected to the command is a junior, in the regular service, to himself.

Resolved, That the circumstances under which we find ourselves, upon the reported general outbreak of the Indians, viz.: with a very small population, not numbering one hundred men in the county; without arms, ammu-

Resolved, That we, as the citizens of San Diego, tender our sincere thanks to Bvt. Major S. P. Heintzelman, U. S. A., for the promptness with which he has responded to our calls in furnishing us arms, ammunition, &c., for our protection against the threatening Indians; that, while he has not overstepped his duty as a good soldier and faithful Government agent, in...
Resolved, That we, as the citizens of San Diego, tender our sincere thanks to Bvt. Major S. P. Heintzelman, U. S. A., for the promptness with which he has responded to our calls in furnishing us arms, ammunition, &c., for our protection against the threatening Indians; that, while he has not overstepped his duty as a good soldier and faithful Government agent, in responding to our many necessary requisitions for the protection of citizens of the United States, yet his co-operation has been attended with so much zeal and alacrity, that we can now but feebly express our gratitude in returning him, unanimously, our sincere thanks; and do pledge the faith of this county against any pecuniary loss that may be brought against him by Government functionaries for public property that he has so kindly furnished for our use and protection.

Resolved, That the above Resolutions be published in the San Diego Herald.
We insert the following, agreeable to a resolution we formed, at the commencement of our publication—to give every man a hearing. We were absent from the city at the time the item in question appeared, and of course can know nothing, personally, of the matter, but we have been assured, by parties who are responsible for their statements, that the original item, to which the Colonel takes exception, was predicated upon the official report to the commanding officer of the Southern Division of the Army.