Vol. 1. SAN DIEGO, CAL., THURSDAY, DEC. 25, 1851.

ARRIVAL OF VOLUNTEERS.—A company of volunteers numbering about 40 men, under the command of Capt. Haig, arrived here on Tuesday, in the brig "North Bend." They are a fine looking set of men as ever shouldered arms, and if they succeed in procuring the necessary animals and provisions to take them into the mountains, the Indians will—to use a favorite expression of Capt. Tobin—"smell h—ll, to a moral certainty."

☞ We would call the attention of our readers to the resolutions passed at the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen.
