

Supreme Court.—Present—Hon. H. C. Murray, C. J. Hons. S. Heydenfeldt and C. H. Bryan, Associates.

MONDAY, February 26.

Smith vs. Newberg.—Continued for the term.

Wester vs. Bear River and Auburn W. and M. Co.—Argued and submitted.

Cheaney vs. Palmer.—Argued and submitted.

Smith vs. Hutchinson, Green & Co.—Argued, and points and authorities to be submitted within five days.

County Court.—JOHN HEARD, Judge.

H. H. O'Callahan vs. J. A. Booth et al.—Appeal continued till Friday next.

H. C. Osborn, Res. vs. Elijah Poor, Ap.—Appeal. Motion to dismiss overruled and appellant ordered to execute bond on or before the first day of next term.

Adjourned till ten o'clock A. M., on Friday next.

ACQUISITION TO "THE SONS."—The grand temperance army is receiving rapid accessions from our prominent and influential citizens. Among those who are to connect themselves with the respectable association of the Sons of Temperance at their meeting this evening, are enrolled the names of David T. Bagley, Major Anderson, N. C. Cunningham, Jos. R. Beard, N. Douglass, A. A. Porter, V. E. Geiger, C. J. Torbett, Johnson Price, C. A. Leake.

"The work goes bravely on!"

LATER FROM KLAMATH COUNTY.—From the Shasta Courier, we get the subjoined items:

The snow on the east side of Salmon Mountain lies about six feet deep.

A report reached Bestville, just before Mr. Sprigs left, that Captains Best and Woodward and Mr. Chapman had been killed by the Indians, while on their way to Trinidad. [A similar report reached us some time ago, via. Crescent City.—Ed.]

GENERAL JAIL DELIVERX.—Five prisoners, says the Marysville Express, escaped from the Yuba County Jail on Friday night last. A reward of $100 each is offered for their apprehension.