

OUTRAGEOUS.—While Capt. Judah, U. S. A., was on the Klamath, he met with much opposition from a certain class, who were advocates for the total extermination of all the Indians in this section, irrespective of their peaceable disposition, and, after no little trouble and vexation, he managed to compromise matters, so that all Indians who gave up their arms and remained in their ranches were to be protected in their persons and property. All the people on the river, except seven or eight, pledged themselves to carry out the pledge to the friendly Indians to the letter. Since Capt. Judah returned, and while the volunteers were out after the hostiles, the seven or eight men alluded to went to a rancharia of friendly Indians, and burnt up all the houses, for the purpose, it is said, of provoking the Indians to join the Red Caps in the mountains, or through a cowardly disposition to make mischief—causing the Indians to believe that there was no intention on the part of the whites to keep their pledges with them.—Humboldt Times, Feb. 17.

JOHN H. RICHARDSON.—This personage, whom we announced last week as having “sloped” from Jamestown, leaving his friends minus their deposits, was found Friday night by the party in pursuit, and brought back to the scene of his triumphs. An examination was had of his books and papers, but no clue could be had to the missing money. His liabilities, so far as they could be ascertained, were found to be about $12,000; his assets—nothing. A committee waited upon him on Monday, and politely invited him to leave town, giving him twenty-four hours to make the necessary arrangements, intimating most decidedly that if he was found within the precinct after that time, he would be assisted on his way with “military honors.” He left.—Sonora Democrat.

MADAME BISCACCIANTI.—This famous American artist, who has been for some months performing in Santiago with the Italian Lyric Company, has left for the Argentine Republic, by way of the Cordilleras, on 12th inst.—Valparaiso Mercury.

In consequence of the scarcity of coin in town the bankers are buying no gold dust at present. At Springfield, we are informed, that the price has fallen fifty cents on the ounce, for dust.—Columbia Gazette.

THE KERN RIVER RUSH.—Capt. Vinsohaler, who arrived in this city yesterday, informs us that there are from a hundred to a hundred and fifty persons pass his place (on the Fresno) daily en route for Kern River.—Stockton Republican.

The Rutland and Burlington Railroad was sold by auction by the Sheriff, at Bellows Falls, recently, for one mill per share. The capital was $2,200,000, and its floating debt $2,000,000, besides the debt of $3,000,000 secured by mortgage.
