

MARYSVILLE THEATRICALS.—We understand that Mrs. C. N. Sinclair, the late estimable and liberal manageress of the Metropolitan theater in San Francisco, will, together with her sister, Mrs. Voorhees, and a portion of the Metropolitan Company, play at the Marysville theater, on Monday evening. The performances of this universally popular actress, and associates, must add no little to the attractions of the Thespian entertainments in our sister city.

FURTHER FROM OREGON.—By the arrival of the America we have received Oregon journals to the 9th inst.

A young man named Daniel Jewett accidentally shot himself at Oak Hills with his gun. He survived but a short time afterward.

The spring throughout Oregon had been cold and wet.

Salmon, strawberries and gooseberries were plenty and cheap.

The Puget Sound Courier is received, and presents a neat appearance. It is published at Steilacoom, Washington Territory, by Affleck & Gunn.

A new flouring mill is being erected on Steilacoom Creek.

ILLINOIS VALLEY, OREGON TERRITORY.—The Indian troubles in that section are far from being settled. The Indian Agent, Dr. Ambrose, we are informed, is using every exertion to concentrate them on the Reservation on Rogue river. Tuesday before last some of them drove away Reef's cattle, and a party of volunteers in pursuit of them, surprised, on Thursday, four Indians, supposed to be their scouts. Firing, they killed one Indian and wounded the others, who retreated into the bushes

LEE & MARSHALL'S CIRCUS.—The San Joaquin Republican learns that Mr. R. J. Taffany the gen-
