CRESCENT CITY NEWS.

By the City of Norfolk, arrived last evening, we received the Crescent City Herald of the 13th and 20th inst. We extract the following from the paper of the latest date.

INDIAN AFFAIRS IN ILLINOIS VALLEY.—Up to the time of our last issue, the Indian difficulties in that section had progressed to an alarming extent. Volunteer companies were in search of the Indians, who had all left the Reservation on Rogue river. Judge Peters, Mr. Rosborough and others, on their way to this city, were induced to return to Jacksonville. Mr. T. A. Jackson came through, accompanied by a guard a short distance of the route, and two days after his arrival a letter was received, written by Mr. Shouddy, and dated Applegate, June 10th, from which, by permission, we make the following extract:

Yesterday, Mr. Jackson got Mr. J. Dyer and Mr. D. McHues to guard him over to Mooney's ranch. On returning home they were waylaid by the Indians and both killed, one having received seven balls and the other ten, through the body in various places. Some soldiers who passed along this morning, found the bodies and buried them. This of course causes considerable excitement, and families are obliged to move to places of safety. Travel has for the moment almost ceased, and there is but little doing in the diggings here or at Jacksonville. It has rained all this afternoon, and two or three trains have just come through without experiencing any trouble.

These statements are fully corroborated by Mr. Cornwall, the Expressman, who came in a few days after.

A postscript to the above is as follows: From G. S. Rice, of Sailor Diggings, we learn that news had been brought in of the adjustment of the Indian troubles, it being reported that the Indians returned to the Reservation after having given up six of their number concerned in the murder of J. B. Hill, on Indian creek, and also in the murder of Dyer and McHues on Applegate.

A contract has been closed for the purpose of opening a trail to the Klamath river, which when finished, will constitute one-half of a direct route from Crescent City to Yreka, passing within ten miles of the mouth of the Salmon, within twenty of Bestville, within eight of Happy Camp, within but a few miles of Scott's Bar, and bringing Yreka and Crescent City within a distance of not more than one hundred miles travel. Such we understand to be the approximative course of the route, one-half of which is now under contract
