Indian Outbreak.—Another Indian outbreak has commenced in Southern Oregon, between the Applegate, Illinois and Coast Indians and the whites. The Indians have killed several white persons, and committed other depredations upon the settlers; such as shooting stock, driving mules and cattle into the mountains, &c. The settlers have become alarmed, and are determined to make a treaty with these bands which will be lasting to the end of time. The Rogue River Indians have been collected together upon the Reservation by Dr. Ambrose, the Indian Agent, and were peaceable when we left, a few days ago.—

ELOPEMENT OF A METHODIST MINISTER WITH ANOTHER MAN'S WIFE.—Through a friend from Troy, we learn a strange, yet said to be true, piece of gossip. Rev. Mr. Chase, of Brunswick, a small village adjacent to Troy, has run away with another man's wife, a newly married woman and but eighteen years of age; whereas the monster is over fifty, and has a wife and ten children. The affair came off on Wednesday last. Our informant tells us that it was common talk in Troy yesterday, but we hope, for the sake of morality, that it may be false.—Argus, May 21.

Capital Hit.—The Stockton Argus says: "Samuel Purdy, running for Lieutenant Governor, hails from San Joaquin county. This is all right we suppose, as the Lieutenant Governor has been a long time from San Joaquin."

COMMUNICATED.

DIAMOND SPRINGS, July 1st, 1855.

Messrs. Editors: Since the publication in your Daily of June 30th, of a communication written by me, from Cold Springs, El Dorado county, I have understood that some numbers containing that article have been forwarded to Cold Springs, from Placerville, with the name of a prominent citizen of that place written in pencil under "Observer." What is the inference? I merely write these few lines to inform that gentleman, that his real name and place of residence does not coincide with the real name place of residence of
