

the days of old, to the preservation of the true principles of the Constitution—that men, men, tried men, are taking their posts, and that the cry “America shall rule America,” will sweep away the miserable jugglers who, under the garb of Democracy, would sell the country to the Pope of Rome, provided they have the privilege of monopolizing his favors. Let our motto, then, be, “Our Federal Union, it must and shall be preserved”—“Americans shall rule America.” I thank you, gentlemen, for the honor you have conferred on me by the reception given to my remarks.

LATER FROM NORTHERN CALIFORNIA.—By the arrival of the Columbia, we have received later news from the upper coast counties. We compile the following items from the Crescent City Herald:

The Editor has received specimens of oats from Smith River Valley, 8 feet 3 inches in height, wheat 6 feet, and timothy 5 feet in height.

New diggings had been discovered on Alfred Creek, a tributary of the Kalmath.

ROGUE RIVER VALLEY.—The Indian difficulties seem to have been definitely settled and every thing turned into its former quiet business channel.

Travellers from that section of the country speak admiringly of the luxuriant growth of grain and vegetables in the valley. Will not some one send us samples to compare with the products of Smith River Valley?

GARDENS.—Our flower as well as kitchen gardens will compare favorably with the best we ever saw on the Atlantic coast. Our tables are now supplied with fresh vegetables of almost every description; new potatoes, green peas, lettuce, spinach, cauliflowers. &c., &c.—Humboldt Times.

TRADE.—Business of every description presents an unusually animated appearance this week. Several new trains have commenced packing from this place, and their presence has created considerable animation among saddlers, coopers, blacksmiths, &c. Business here is principally on the cash system, and the consequence is that
