

recommitted to jail, to await further action by the Grand Jury. It is doubtful, however, whether under the ruling of the Supreme Court they can be tried again.

KNOW NOTHING NOMINATIONS.—The Know Nothings of this county have been very busy for a day or two past in making out a programme for county officers. The nominations were effected on Tuesday last, and as far as we can learn, the probability is that the following selections have been made: Assemblymen—B. G. Weir and Dr. J. W. Hunter; Sheriff, Geo. Webster; Recorder, Dr. Shurtleff; Treasurer, Samuel Brooks; County Clerk, John W. O'Neil; Prosecuting Attorney, Otis L. Bridges; Assessor, — Strout; School Superintendent, Dr. Canders; County Surveyor, George S. Drew.—San Joaquin Republican.

in the gardens of Yolo county, the grasshoppers have lately made descent on the tall tules that cover the marshy grounds of the county lying between the Sacramento and Putah. They find this species of food a delicate dessert, if one may judge by the avidity with which they devour it.

INDIAN RESERVATIONS.—Col. Thos. J. Henley, Superintendent of Indian affairs, passed through this city yesterday, on his way to the Nomee Lackee Reservation in Colusa county. At the time of his departure from the Tejon Reservation, everything was quiet; the Indians had gathered the crops, and were pursuing their daily avocations industriously and without giving trouble to their white neighbors.
