Indian Meeting.

Several gentlemen have called upon us, among others Capt. Weatherlow and Mr. Lockhart, and requested us to suggest that the citizens of Shasta hold a meeting, at one of the hotels this evening, for the purpose of devising some plan to free the Sacramento Trail from the presence of the Pitt River Indians. Captain Weatherlow, by the way one of the most successful Indian fighters in California, is willing to make the attempt with even a very small company of experienced mountain men. Shall there be a meeting this evening?
