

first. Yours, eternally, R. de C.

---

GOOD NEWS.—The Sunday School children must all go to Sunday School next Sabbath, and see the many pretty books that Mr. Rogers, their pastor, has received for them. He promises to let all good little girls and boys have these pleasant books to read. So do not forget to be there. We know that the pretty little girl, with the blue eyes and sunny curls, who brought the beautiful boquet to us the other day, will get a beautiful book to read. The following is a list of the entire library :

Large map of Palestine; Youth's Library, 234 volumes; Library A, 100; Library B, 105; Gift Books, 12; for reference, 5; Testaments, 24; Question Books, 24; Hymn Books, 24; Small Gift Books, in paper, 102; total, 720. Tracts 1530.

---

MORE TROOPS FOR THE NORTH.—We have been informed that Col. Wright has made a call upon Gen. Hitchcock for more troops, in order to operate more effectually against the Indians. We sincerely trust that Gen. H. will promptly respond to his call. We are persuaded that, with a competent force, Col. Wright would effect great and speedy good, not only for the whites but for the Indians. It is useless to talk about treaties with the Indians—nothing save a terrible whipping, such as they have never conceived of—a complete cowing—will secure for us a lasting peace.

---

NEW PAPER.—We have received the first number of the Appeal, a paper recently established by W. S. Flemming in Placerville. The Appeal is thoroughly Democratic—the mechanical execution is unexceptionable, while its articles are well written. We tender Mr. Fleming