

entitle such schools to a pro rata division of the monies, provided the school law has in other respects been complied with.

Of the school lands 110,000 acres have already been sold, yielding a fund of $300,000. The interest of this, together with such other probable sums as will accrue from the sale of lands during the present year will amount to about $22,000 leaving for distribution on the 1st January, 1854, the sum of $50,000.

By the report it appears that there are in this State between the ages of 4 and 18 years, 17,821 white children, and the number of scholars in attendance is placed at 3,314, and the amount expended for teachers salaries $21,353 42. The amount of school monies assessed under the revenue law of 1852 is $31,042 34, from which there is deducted for delinquents, commission and mileage $8,869 50, leaving $22,172 84. The total amount paid into the State Treasury up to January 1853, is $12,874 65.

INDIAN MURDER.—The Marysville Herald says that a miner named Bright, formerly of Ohio, was shot by the Indians while at work on Willow Creek, near Yankee Camp, a short time since. The murderers have not been arrested.

This article has been automatically clipped from the Sacramento Daily Union 15 April 1853, organised into a single column, then optimised for display on your computer screen. As a result, it may not look exactly as it did on the original page. The article can be seen in its original form in the page view.